

2017 Thanksgiving Weekend Events at Kejimikujik

Friday, October 6th

7:00-8:00 p.m. Guide's Campfire

A Mi'kmaw guide and his Sport go on a hunting trip that turns their campsite inside out. They have to muddle through it together and have a role reversal revelation! Jeremy's Bay Campfire Circle P2.
Please bring your own mug. Meet at the Campfire Circle – P2 I in Jeremy's Bay Campground

8:30-9:30 p.m. Your Guides to the Galaxy

Gaze upon starlit and moonlit skies and explore the ways stars have guided us through the ages.
Meet Paul and Lesley at the Sky Circle – behind P1 in Jeremy's Bay Campground

Saturday, October 7th

6:00-8:00 p.m. Friends of Keji Voting for the Top 10 Sites for Pumpkin Carving Contest – Have your sites ready and pumpkins lit!
Jeremy's Bay Campground

8:00 – 11:00 p.m. Pumpkin Viewing Walkabout and Camper On-line and On-site Voting for the Pumpkin Carving Contest.

Jeremy's Bay Campground. PLEASE WALK! Top 10 sites will be identified. Visit the spooky campfire circle (JBC P2) to have a warm beverage from the caudron and place your vote or go to the Friends of Keji Facebook Page. Please join the Friends of Keji FB page ASAP to participate in on-line voting. Parking available in P1 and P2.

11:00 p.m. On-site Voting Closes for the Pumpkin Carving Contest.

Sunday, October 8th

11:00 a.m. Cold Turkey Swim

Come to Kedge Beach in Jeremy's Bay Campground. Hot apple cider provided by Friends of Keji. Please bring your own mug!

1:00p.m. On-line Voting Closes for the Pumpkin Carving Contest

7:00 p.m. Mid-Autumn Night's Campfire

Our forests abound with the mysteries of nature. Gather around the warm glow of our fire for a warm drink and the retelling of the Bard's story of magic, autumn, and nature.

Campfire Circle in Jeremy's Bay Campground P2. Pumpkin Carving Contest and Photo Contest Prizes awarded. Please bring your own mug.

Donations for the food bank will be accepted at the Visitor Centre all weekend.

For more information, call (902) 682-2772.